After twelve years of faithful service as rural mail carrier on Maysville route No. 1, Mr. Ben H. Greenlee will on next Monday sever his connection with the postoffice department to accept a position with the Standard Oil Company, having charge of the distributing plant here under Mr. H. C. SENATE PASSES ACT

Declaring War on Austria—Vote Is Unanimous, But LaFollette Is Absent—House Soon to Act.

Washington, December 7.—The Senate unanimously passed this afternoon the resolution declaring a state of war against Austria Hungary.

With the Senate's approval of the war resolution, it was certain the House late this afternoon would take the same action.

Senator LaFollette, who took his seat during debate, absented himself when the roll call was begun.

The Senate's vote followed stirring speeches by Senators Stone, Lodge and Hitchcock.

Senator Hitchcock said his objections to a declaration against Austria had been cleared away by President Wilson's stand assuring Austria free access to the Adriatic.

"The German menace today is greater than on the day we declared war," he said.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, ranking Republican member of the Foreign Relations Committee, spoke against inclusion of Bulgaria and Turkey at this time.

"The only reason for leaving Turkey out is the danger to American lives and property in Turkey," he said.

"We do not touch Bulgaria in a military sense, but we have a Bulgarian legation in Washington, and if the officials are friendly to us, they are traitors to their own country and its ally, Germany."

TURKEYS

We notice in one of the local papers the advice to farmers that this is their last chance to sell their turkeys for the Christmas market and advising early delivery as it appears that prices may yet be lower. We see no indication whatever of a slump in the turkey market so don't get uneasy and sacrifice your birds. There will be a big demand for turkeys until New Year day and we will not only buy every day until then, but will continue buying right along after the holiday markets.

Peremptory instructions to find for the defendant were given the jury by Judge Newell, as the prosecution failed to prove any promise of marriage.

FINE TRIBUTE

Paid to Judge C. D. Newell By Editor of Mayfield Messenger.

A case of wide general interest and one of peculiar local interest because of its financial concern to many Mason countians, is the case of the City of Mayfield against Mayfield Water and Light Co., et al., decided last week by our own Judge, Hon. C. D. Newell, acting as special judge at Mayfield, Graves county, Ky. Speaking editorially pertaining to the case and to the presiding judge, under the caption of "Judge Newell," the Mayfield Daily Messenger of Monday, December 3, pays this fine tribute to our worthy judge, which it is our pleasure to here repeat:

"Judge Newell is a young-looking man but is 53 years old. He was born in and lived in Mason county, Kentucky, and after arriving at young manhood, he chose the law as his profession.

"When he was about 30 years old he was elected county judge of that county, a position which he held for 12 years. He was liked so well as a county judge, the people of Bracken, Mason and Fleming counties took him up and elected him circuit judge of the Nineteenth Judicial District.

"He served them so well the first term that at the end of that term he was re-elected and is now serving his second term as their circuit judge.

"He is very popular as such among his people and they all delight to honor him when he offers himself for an office.

"He is a Democrat and has always taken a big hand in both local and district politics.

"He has a strong voice, is a stout, healthy-looking man and seems to be a good mixer.

"He came to Mayfield as a special judge, an absolute stranger to the people of this town. He came here to try an important case of the city against the Mayfield Water & Light Co., which has been a case that the people have wanted tried for some time.

"As soon as he took his seat on the bench, he began to look direct into the case, and from the beginning of the trial until the end, which was two days and two nights, he took a lively interest in the contentions of both the plaintiffs and the defendants.

"The case was closely contested by the attorneys on both sides and on account of the peculiar evidence and contentions, it was a hard matter to properly fix the value of so important a plant, but the judge finally came to the conclusion that the plant was worth $272,000, and so fixed the value and made the order.

"The judge made quite a number of good friends while here and left Sunday morning for his home in Maysville, where he opened his own court Monday morning."

OFFICER SENDS REPORT

On Ship Blast—U. S. Warship Rushes to Halifax When Explosion Is Heard.

Washington, December 7.—Five thousand dead in the Halifax disaster was the unconfirmed estimate a naval commander forwarded to the Navy Department here overnight.

He had seen and heard the horrible explosion while 52 miles at sea, and reaching the harbor, learned of the holocaust.

He said the munitions ship crew reached shore safely by abandoning their craft when the fire started.

The Navy Department announced the following has been received from a commander:

"While 52 miles at sea, the explosion of a munitions ship was seen and heard. On arriving, assistance was offered the authorities and the following learned concerning the circumstances leading up to the explosion:

"A Belgian relief ship collided with a French munitions vessel loaded with 3000 tons of 'T. N. T.' and a large quantity of benzine.

"Due to an explosion the benzine caught fire, and as soon as the fire started the crew abandoned ship, reaching shore before the explosion took place.

"Practically all of north Halifax was destroyed, and all windows and doors in Halifax and Dartmouth were demolished.

"Tonight it is believed there are 5000 dead, but these figures cannot be confirmed.

"The explosion sank three ships and badly damaged many others. The ruins of buildings are now burning fiercely in North Halifax."

The American Consulate at Halifax is within two and a half blocks of the water front and close to the custom house.

The department's anxiety was heightened by the fact that Watts is always prompt to report such matters. He is father of Constructor Watts, of the navy, and was American consul in Brussels at the outbreak of the war.

That no American ships were involved in the Halifax disaster appeared more likely this forenoon from the fact that no mention of any was included in the Navy Department's reports.

King's Daughters of the Episcopal Church will meet with Mrs. C. Ramage on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Fred Power and Mrs. Maud Farnsworth will be the readers after which a social time will be enjoyed.

THE RETURNING CONGRESSMEN

A few of the congressmen who have recently been visiting the countries of our allies, and who have been pretty close to the front, have returned home. Six of them are already in Washington and a seventh is on his way there.

Their trip has been profitable. Those representatives of the American public have returned convinced that their duty and the duty of every citizen of the United States is to support the government and to push the fight to a definite conclusive victory just as fast as possible.

One of them, in an interview, told something of the new vision he has gained of the Allied cause, of what had already been accomplished and of what remains to be done. He said in part:

"Before visiting the battle fronts I thought I had some conception of conditions in Europe brought on by the war. I see now how badly mistaken I was. No words can depict the horror and inhumanity of it all, the depths of Teutonic cruelty and barbarism, nor can one underestimate the importance of the decisive blows which must yet be aimed at the most disaboliing enemy of civilization, the world has yet known."

It is evident that he is ready for the coming session of congress. He sees his duty and will do his part to help others see theirs, in supporting the administration in all its war measures. "We must not look upon the president as the President, or as Woodrow Wilson, but as America's war leader, as the commander-in-chief of the army and navy, who must have the intelligent backing of the American congress and the undivided support of the American people."

In regard to present peace talk, the returned congressmen have a definite opinion. There must be none until Germany is beaten. And there will be no honest peace talk until then. Germany will make proffers of peace from time to time, trying to extricate herself from a position becoming daily less comfortable. But such offers, from whatever source they seem to come, must be recognized for what they are and disclaimed by every man and woman loyal to the cause of democracy.

The congressmen who went abroad learned much. Their faith in the fight for the safety of democracy was renewed, their vision clarified, their determination strengthened. The trip was well worth while. Its value will be multiplied if the great crowd of folks back home who can't see for themselves will accept the word of their representatives and profit by their experiences.

NATIONAL PARANOIA

The committee on public information at Washington has been compiling a comprehensive lot of evidence showing the spirit and aims of the Pan-Germanists. In its report on "Conquest and Kultur," we find Prussianism blandly admitting its merits after this fashion:

"We are the salt of the earth," the Kaiser tells his people. Bernhardt expands the theme: "We Germans have a far greater and more urgent duty toward civilization to perform than the great Asiatic power. We can only fulfill it by the sword." A German manual for school children declares that "Germany's mission in history is to rejuvenate the exhausted members of Europe by a diffusion of German blood."

"We feel ourselves to be the bearers of a superior kultur," announces the Kaiser's pastor. "Germany," says another pastor, "is now about to become, mentally and morally, the first nation of the world."

Says Adolph Lasson, a distinguished professor of philosophy "Either one must consider Germany as the most perfect political creation that history has known, or must approve her destruction, her extermination. We are morally and intellectually superior to all, without peers. It is the same with our organizations and with our institutions."

And so on, to the point of nausea or incredulity.

When an individual talks like that, we adjudge him insane. The ailment is common enough. Any alienist will readily diagnose it as paranoia, a mental derangement characterized by uncontrolled and dangerous inflation of the ego. There are the familiar "delusions of grandeur," the "mania of persecution"—a fancy that all the world is hostile to the patient—and a tendency to violent crime.

We put our individual paranoias into straight-jackets. There is nothing else to do about Germany. And that is precisely what we have set out to do.

After the war the boys who went to the front in the uniform of the American army will come to the front in every walk of life in America.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Lexington, Ky., December 6—Desperately wounded by shrapnel, asphyxiated by poisonous gas as he lay bleeding from his wounds, later picked up as a corpse from the bloody battlefield where he had lain unconscious for thirty-six hours to be buried with the thousands of others who had fallen in the fierce fighting around Lens, and finally found amid the heaps of slain and rescued to be sent to an English hospital at Hampten Hill, where he is now recovering, are some of the thrilling experiences of

THAT BACKACHE SPELLS DANGER!

Action Today May Save Maysville People Future Misery.

A bad back isn't a bad thing if it serves as warning of hidden kidney disorders. Kidney diseases are frightfully common today. We over-do so much. We don't give the kidneys a chance to rest up, and while a bad back, some bladder disorder, an occasional dizzy spell or a persistent headache may be only outward sign, the kidney trouble that is behind it all may be overlooked or neglected. Put your signs to use. Take them as warnings. Fight off kidney weakness. It takes only a slight kidney disorder to start a case of fatal Bright's disease, from which 100,000 people die in the United States every year. Prompt treatment at first—that's all that's necessary to keep kidney weakness from turning into gravel, dropsy, gout, heart trouble or Bright's. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the oldest, the most widely used, the best-recommended Kidney Pills. Forty thousand Americans recommend them publicly. Here's one Maysville case:

Mrs. John Burns, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since." (Statement given February 13, 1914.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE
On November 15, 1916, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today, as ever. I have not needed a kidney medicine since I took them."

Mrs. Burns is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Burns has twice publicly recommended—the remedy backed by home testimony. Romy Bogart, a private of the 47th Canadian Battery, a former Lexington boy and youngest son of Victor Bogart, special Belgian relief commissioner as told to his father, who is just back from the war front and who visited the young hero in the hospital near London.

Young Bogart, who is only twenty-one, enlisted three years ago in a Canadian unit, and in the last year has been awarded three medals for distinguished bravery. Because of his ability to speak French, Flemish and German and his intimate acquaintance with the country in Belgium and Northern France, where much of his boyhood was spent, he was used as a guide for the placing of various regiments of the allied forces at the front, and it was while engaged in this dangerous work he met with many of the thrilling and terrible experiences through which he has passed. His right leg is paralyzed, and he is suffering from weak heart and lungs, as a result of inhaling the poisonous gas, and will probably never be able for active service again at the front, but as soon as he is able to leave the hospital he will try to obtain a release from his old command and secure a commission as instructor to train American troops, as he says he wants to be useful to the allied cause.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

MEANS BARED GERMAN PLOTS, HE TELLS MURDER CASE JURY; DENIES HE COERCED MRS. KING

Concord, N. C., December 6—Gaston B. Means today led the jury which is trying him for the alleged murder of Mrs. Maud A. King through a maze of financial transactions and international dealings.

Means, taking the stand in his own defense, laid bare his life from the time he left college. His first big statement was his denial of any acts in the interests of the German Government which might have worked to the detriment of the United States Government.

He admitted connections with the German Government, but claimed that he gave the United States Government the benefit of all the discoveries he made. He cited Joseph P. Tumulty and Secretary of the Navy Joseph Daniels as two officials who had received information of German activities in this country from his hands.

He declared that it was he who had discovered and reported to the Government the German plot to restore Huerta to a dictatorship in Mexico, bring on war between Mexico and the United States and at the same time start a peace propaganda.

THOUSANDS IN CAUCASUS STARVING BECAUSE OF OVERTHROW OF KEREYSKY

New York, December 6—Thousands of old men, women and children, who sought refuge in the Caucasus from the barbarities of the Turks in Armenia, are dying from hunger as a direct result of the overthrow of the Russian Provisional Government, according to a cable message received December 2 by Secretary of State Lansing from F. Willoughby Smith, American Consul at Tiflis, Russian Caucasus, and made public here today by the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief.

The counter-revolution eliminated automatically the funds provided by the Provisional Government for the maintenance of orphanages and asylums and for the distribution of food and clothing to the refugees, the message states.

In addition to the sums already promised by the New York committee, $200,000 monthly will be required to continue the relief work, Consul Smith says. He also urges the extension of the American cloth manufacturing plant at Tiflis, so that work may be provided for thousands of the needy.

WOULD ABOLISH POSTAL EMPLOYEES' ORGANIZATIONS

Washington, December 6—Emphasizing the need for unselfish co-operation while the nation is at war, Postmaster General Burleson has recommended that Congress repeal the law that allows postal employees to maintain organizations, which, he says, are rapidly becoming a menace to public warfare. Because of affiliation with other labor bodies they are becoming bold, he declared, and are demanding permanent increases in pay and shorter hours, although they are under civil service.

GERMANS PERISH

In Attack on British—Massed Troops Driven Off.

With the British Armies in the Field December 7—At least 2000 Germans perished in two violent and fruitless attempts to break British lines around Vial Wood today.

Twenty-five separate German divisions have been identified as composing the enemy offensive forces in this sector—indicating the Germans have at least 375,000 men massed there.

It was the British who were entrenched on the Hindenburg line today—the same line that the Germans held so firmly until Byng's smash.

They defended the erstwhile enemy line against several powerful attempts to retake it. The enemy was stubbornly determined.

Along one arc, massed troops were thrown forward and driven off. Almost immediately a second attacking wave formed.

This second wave of densely packed masses of men was caught in the British artillery and wiped out.

Germany apparently is preparing to throw every ounce of her energy into a supreme attempt at a military victory before arrival of American troops on the fighting line.

On the Boulton sector there were only two alternatives open to General Byng. One was to push ahead, and the other was to step backward to a more secure footing.

With the Russian situation permitting the enemy to mass great forces on the Cambrai line, the backward step seemed the only thing to do.

FIRST BIG SNOW OF SEASON

Beginning at 10 o'clock last night snow began falling here and this morning the ground was covered with about eight inches of the "beautiful," making walking rather difficult for early-morning pedestrians. The street car system has been rather demoralized this morning but the scraping of snow from the tracks improved conditions considerable.

There was one foot of snow in Covington and Cincinnati at 8 o'clock this morning.

A message from Huntington at press time was that it was raining there and at Portsmouth and that the rain was coming this way.

The Maysville Grocers Association held a very interesting meeting last night at the Chamber of Commerce and transacted some important business. Mr. Jacob Dinger read an interesting paper on "The Retail Grocer's Situation in Maysville at the Present Time."

The Vanceburg Sun, published in the county seat of Lewis county and a popular little weekly in this section, has installed an intertype typesetting machine, which makes a great improvement in the appearance of the paper.

Miss Martha Lovel entertained the Knitting Club at her home yesterday afternoon with a delightful luncheon.

Miss Ria Ross will entertain the Bridge Club this afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Johnston.

Paris is to have a one-day tobacco fair next Saturday, December 15.

Arthur Morton

Arthur Morton was one of the kind of men that make the world possible; he did his share of the "bread-labor" which is so necessary and by which all men live. From the simple and unaffected person he was with people and at work it may be inferred that in his private life there was the same goodness. Knowing naught but of the life of those whose annals are short and simple he was perhaps the happier. He did his best among the millions of the world who are without the reach of "better" things; whose limited lives make them so much the better qualified for the possession of spiritual thing, and whose patient work and peacefulness will some day bring them into their heritage. ***

MUCH COAL

Supplied Cincinnati and Southern Markets By Artilelial Rise, Which Passed There Thursday.

An artificial rise in the Ohio river passed here Thursday bringing down a large shipment of coal for the Southern markets. This was said to be the most successful movement of coal that has even taken place on the Ohio river by this process.

The present wave was created by opening the dams from just above Wheeling to Ashland and also by using the dams in the Kanawha river. The wave created was seventy miles long and lasted twenty-four hours. There were ten towboats carrying 140 barges and each barge carried 400 tons of coal. This will amount to 56,000 tons of coal on this shipment.

Figured at the rate of fifty-six tons to each car, it would be equivalent to 1,000 cars of coal, or about fifteen train loads. his process of shipping coal will relieve the shortage of coal in Cincinnati, Louisville and other places, including Maysville; one barge being received here.
